NEW UPDATE! NEW UPDATE! NEW UPDATE! NEW UPDATE!

The National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc.™ monitors a national certification system, to identify for professionals and the public those counselors who have voluntarily sought and obtained certification, and to maintain a register of those counselors. Currently, NBCC lists more than 38,000 National Certified Counselors (NCCs™).

In addition, NCCs may hold a specialty credential in any of the following areas: career counseling, gerontological counseling, school counseling, clinical mental health counseling and addictions counseling.
